

NationAir Company Fact Sheet

As one of the nation's oldest and largest aviation insurance providers, NationAir offers clients the influence of a large, national brokerage along with the ability to create a personal relationship with a local broker.

With more than $40 billion in aviation assets insured and nearly three decades of industry leadership, NationAir leverages its long-standing relationships with underwriters to advocate effectively on behalf of its clients.

The company is headquartered in Chicago, and has offices located at regional airports throughout the country: Carlsbad, California; Lincoln, Nebraska; Sebastian, Florida; Minneapolis, Minnesota; Manchester, New Hampshire; Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; Portland, Oregon; St. Louis, Missouri.

HISTORY

NationAir is a privately held, family-owned aviation brokerage founded by Ralph Bauer in 1978.

From the company's first office at the Spirit of St. Louis Airport in Chesterfield, Missouri, NationAir has grown to nine regional offices located at airports throughout the U.S., in addition to its corporate offices in Chicago.

NationAir is a committed participant in the aviation industry. For most of its history, the company has been an owner and operator of numerous corporate aircraft. Many of its brokers have extensive aviation experience as FBO owners, corporate pilots, military aviators and aviation attorneys. From the outset, NationAir has been an active participant in all national and many local aviation organizations.
